2.1 Priority Management

All cases are handled according to the assessment of the impact and urgency level as indicated in Table 2 - Priority Matrix. The priority and Resolution of a case is determined mutually by Supplier and Customer.

Supplier will use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver Support Services pursuant to Table 3 - Service Level Objectives (“Table 3”). For Premier and Elite Support, Supplier provides a guarantee for the Service Level Objectives in Table 3 for production environment cases only (. For Guaranteed Service Level Objectives, if Supplier fails to meet the Service Level Objectives in Table 3, Supplier will assemble a multi-disciplinary team to work with Customer until Resolution is achieved, which is Customer’s exclusive remedy and Supplier’s exclusive liability for a missed Guaranteed Service Level Objectives.

Any Supplier time spent in the Resolution of a case that is ultimately determined by Supplier, after using commercially reasonable efforts, not to be a Supplier side defect, shall be reimbursed by the Customer on a time and materials basis.

- (f) Order status follow-up

- (g) Return Material Authorization (RMA) related inquiries
- (h) Product enhancements

2.2.2 Validation Services:

Premier and Elite Support Services for OASF and MSS are available only upon completion of the Validation Service. The Validation Service is purchased and charged to Customer pursuant to an Order Document, and consists of an expert examination of the OASF or MSS implementation and determination of areas where Supplier technology may be leveraged for a more secure and efficient implementation. The Validation Service typically takes two (2) Business Days and reflects various communications between the Supplier integration expert and the Customer IT representative. The result is a customized written evaluation report that offers a critique of the current implementation and provides suggestions for change, when necessary.

In addition to Customer's responsibilities in section 2.5 above, the Customer must:

- i. use the OASF troubleshooting document before contacting Supplier helpdesk. Customer will receive a troubleshooting document with the Supported Software that contains a range of tests that should be performed and questions that should be answered by Customer prior to requesting Support Service.
- ii. document the overall application architecture and provide the same to the Supplier helpdesk, together with information on the critical application components and procedures where the OASF or MSS is involved.

If Customer requires assistance or service not covered by Support Services, Customer may contact a Supplier representative to obtain the applicable Service at an additional cost.

3. Software Maintenance for Supported Software

Updates and Technical Product Information are made generally available to all licensees of Supported Software, and may be obtained by the Customer at the Customer Portal or the Community Portal. Software Maintenance excludes remote assistance (installing, configuring or troubleshooting) and on-site assistance.

4. Customer's Responsibilities

For the delivery of Support and Software Maintenance Services, the Customer must:

- (a) ensure sufficient access to the Internet for remote screen share when deemed necessary for expedited Resolution
- (b) use Software Maintenance only for the number of licenses of purchased Supported Software
- (c) ensure that the latest version of the Supported Software is in use for optimal Support Service
- (d) ensure that Customer designated contact(s) (i) are up-to-date in their knowledge of the supported Products in its latest version; (ii) have access to all data relevant to the supported Products; (iii) provide Supplier with all information for proper issue diagnosis and troubleshooting, including information on the relevant environment (e.g. additional log-files) to reproduce the issue; and (iv) provide timely replies
- (e) not transfer to Supplier any Customer's client-related information unless anonymized
- (f) allow Supplier to carry out Support Service outside of Customer's normal working hours as may be necessary such as to complete repair work or a trouble-shooting phase
- (g) give timely written notice to Supplier of any change in the Customer designated contact(s)

The Customer acknowledges that non-fulfillment of Customer's responsibilities or insufficient information may heavily delay or render impossible the provisioning of Support Service.
